Coming to NYJC through DSA was a dream come true but I was worried about life in JC. My O level score was 11 raw and I knew that it wasn't going to be easy for me and that I had to work very hard to do well. Only after graduating did I realise how lucky I was to be able to study in NYJC. NYJC is really conducive for study and making friends.

From the first day i stepped into the school in NYJC in 2003, i was inspired by caring environment that Nanyang JC provided. NYJC might not be one of the top 5 JCs but I feel immensely proud to be part of the big Nanyang family. I had some wonderful teachers, most notably my civics tutor, Mr Teo Lye Heng, who guided me through my entire two years.
