Lower Salt River Brent D.: The water in the Lower Salt has stopped flowing, but the fishing hasn't slowed as much as the current. I managed to pull nearly 40 largemouth out on weightless wacky rig worms. All the colors were working but the best was green pumpkin and morning dawn 5-inch worms. Attached is the biggest just about 3 lbs.

Angler Report: Lower Salt River — Fish AZ

For the angler, fishing the Lower Yuba for shad has a lot to do with river flows. For the last month it has been flowing about 1,000 cfs which is prime for anglers. The previous two years we had heavy winters and high spring flows. A year ago on this date the flows were over 6,000 cfs.
